People are in no way restricted to their parish hour.

Bishop Deenihan has asked that prayers would be offered for the following intentions during the weekend ---
For the children preparing for the Sacraments and for the families, that they may grow in love for Jesus in the Eucharist
For a return to the Eucharist in our parish communities.

For vocations to the priesthood and religious life in our Diocese.

“Only in adoration, only in the presence of the Lord do we truly rediscover our taste and passion for evangelization. Oddly enough, we have lost the prayer of adoration and everyone, priests, bishops, consecrated men and women, need to recover it, and be quiet in the Lord’s presence.” Pope Francis, World Youth Day 2023 Lisbon

PRAYERS FOR SOULS IN PURGATORY

Life as a Mission: The servants who invest the talents and make a return on them have understood the purpose of their lives and the time they have at their disposal. These servants were generous with everything their master had given them, making it bear fruit, and they received from him the reward of greater intimacy and more responsibility. Each of us is also given a limited amount of time in life to use our various gifts to give glory to God and help save other souls. We too should work every day to hear those words: ‘Well done, good and faithful servant.’

The Useless Servant: How often we are paralyzed by fear, or false prudence into doing nothing, into trying to preserve ourselves! Sometimes we don’t take God’s gifts seriously or think we have been given very little, and we use that as a rationalisation for making no effort or for producing little for God. We blame

Prayer for the Holy Souls
Eternal Father turn your Merciful gaze upon the Suffering souls in Purgatory, who are enfolded in the Most Compassionate Heart of Jesus. I beg you by the Sorrowful passion of Jesus Your Son to show your Mercy To the suffering souls. Look Upon them in no other way But only through the Wounds Of Jesus, Your dearly beloved Son; for we believe there is no limit to your goodness and Compassion Amen.

Thought for the Day

The poor we see with the eyes of flesh; they are there and we can put finger and hand in their wounds and the scars of the crown of thorns are visible on their foreheads; and at this point incredulity no longer has place and we should fall at their feet and say with the Apostle, Tu est Dominus et Deus meus (You are my Lord and my God!). You are our masters, and we will be your servants. You are for us the sacred images of that God whom we do not see, and not knowing how to love Him otherwise shall we not love Him in your person’?
