

The Most Holy Trinity

Rosary Monday to Friday Clonmellon 9.35am followed by Mass @ 10am

On this Sunday, we honor the Triune God – the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit as one God in three Divine Persons. “I and the Father are one.” Together, they sent the Holy Spirit. The Bible tells us, “For there are three that bear record in Heaven, the Father, the Word and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one” (1 John 5:7-11). To understand the Trinity is to understand God more fully.

REFLECTION:

The Father, Son and Holy Spirit are persons. And as persons, they want to be known. And they want to be known primarily through a life of deep and intimate prayer. Praying to one person, of course, is praying to all, since they are one God. But we are, nonetheless, called to a relationship of love with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Prayer often begins by saying prayers, by meditating upon Scripture, and by listening. But true prayer is something much deeper.

True prayer is contemplative prayer that ultimately leads to divine union. Only God can initiate this form of prayer in our lives, and only God, through this deep form of prayer, can communicate himself to us as he is. Some of the greatest mystics of our Church, such as Saint John of the Cross and Saint Teresa of Ávila, explain in their mystical theology that the deepest knowledge of God does not come through concepts or images. Reflect, today, upon the Most Holy Trinity.

As you do, say a prayer to God asking for a deeper and more intimate knowledge of him. Ask him to communicate to you his divine love and to open your mind and heart to a deeper understanding of who he is. Try to humble yourself before the great mystery of the inner life of God. Humility before the mystery of God means that we know how little we know about him and how little we know of him. But that humble truth will help you move closer to the deeper relationship of love to which you are called.

We pause to reflect on St. Joseph, the silent, faithful father who protected and guided the Holy Family with gentle courage and devoted care. St. Joseph, the earthly father of Jesus, is a powerful example of fatherhood marked by humility, faith, and quiet strength. Though little is recorded of his words, his actions speak volumes. He protected Mary and Jesus, provided for them through honest labour, and followed God's will with unwavering trust. As a father, Joseph showed love not through grand gestures but through steadfast presence and obedience. His life serves as a model for all fathers: to lead with integrity, care selflessly for their families, and remain faithful.
