Nov 1st Feast of All Saints: We begin remembering all our dead, pray for them, pay tribute too. Please take your list of the dead sheets this weekend and return for Mass to be included in our November Remembering Space.

Stair lift that Fr. Garland was using (in perfect working order), available to anyone that would make use of it. Contact Fr. David.

New Church Boiler: old one on its last legs so a new, more efficient and dependable one in place very soon Please God.

Weekend Mass Readers: If the reader could please present themselves in the sacristy before mass so we can check in with each other. New rota is available from sacristy.

Come Join the Clonmellon Active Retirement, formed for all those Young at Heart! Founded in July 2009 for fun events & to reduce isolation for the elderly & those living alone. We meet in Clonmellon Community Centre every second Thurs 3–5pm, we're building social networks together by bringing new friendship opportunities for all in the 55+ age range. Activities include Cinema Day trips, Theatre, Christmas celebrations, gentle chair exercises to music, Bingo, Boccia and Curling, finishing with Tea & Treats. We warmly welcome new members to come & have fun with us. Please contact Secretary, Marie Henry 0861003659

PARISH SOCIAL ACTIVITIES:

Coffee / Tea Morning: Please join us after mass on Tues this week on Tuesday November 4th.

Parish Volunteers Evening Meal: A very pleasant and enjoyable evening was had by all it seems. My sincere thanks to all that attended, helped with the catering and cooked some amazing food. It was most enjoyable to spend time together with lots of chat and laughter. If you were unable to join us on the night, hopefully you might get the opportunity next time round.

Thanks to everyone that came along and made the evening special. A sincere thanks and appreciation for everyone involved in the parish before my arrival and your support and care for Fr. Seán. Hope we are all enthused for the year ahead.

Personal Note from Fr. David:

Mant thanks to all who sympathised and supported both myself and the wider family following on from the recent death of my father Pat Bradley. Your kindness and prayer is very much appreciated. A lot has been happening for me over the past 6 months with change of parish, settling in and setting in place some new programmes and practices. I now hope, over the next couple of weeks, to step back a little, take things easier and try to enjoy a little “me time” to re-charge the batteries and re-energise myself for the run into Christmas. I may come and go a little more over the next few weeks and hopefully with little or no inconvenience to yourselves or parish schedule. So, apologies, any non-essential and non-urgent matters put on hold for now. Thanks Fr. David
