Vocations Sunday is a day of prayer for young people as they seek guidance in choosing their career and life path. The Lord God has a specific calling for some to serve through the priesthood and religious life. As a faith community, we encourage people of all ages to remain open to this call and respond with generosity. If you feel called to the priesthood within our Diocese, please see the details below. For those interested in other forms of religious life, information can be found through the respective orders.
